Argonaut

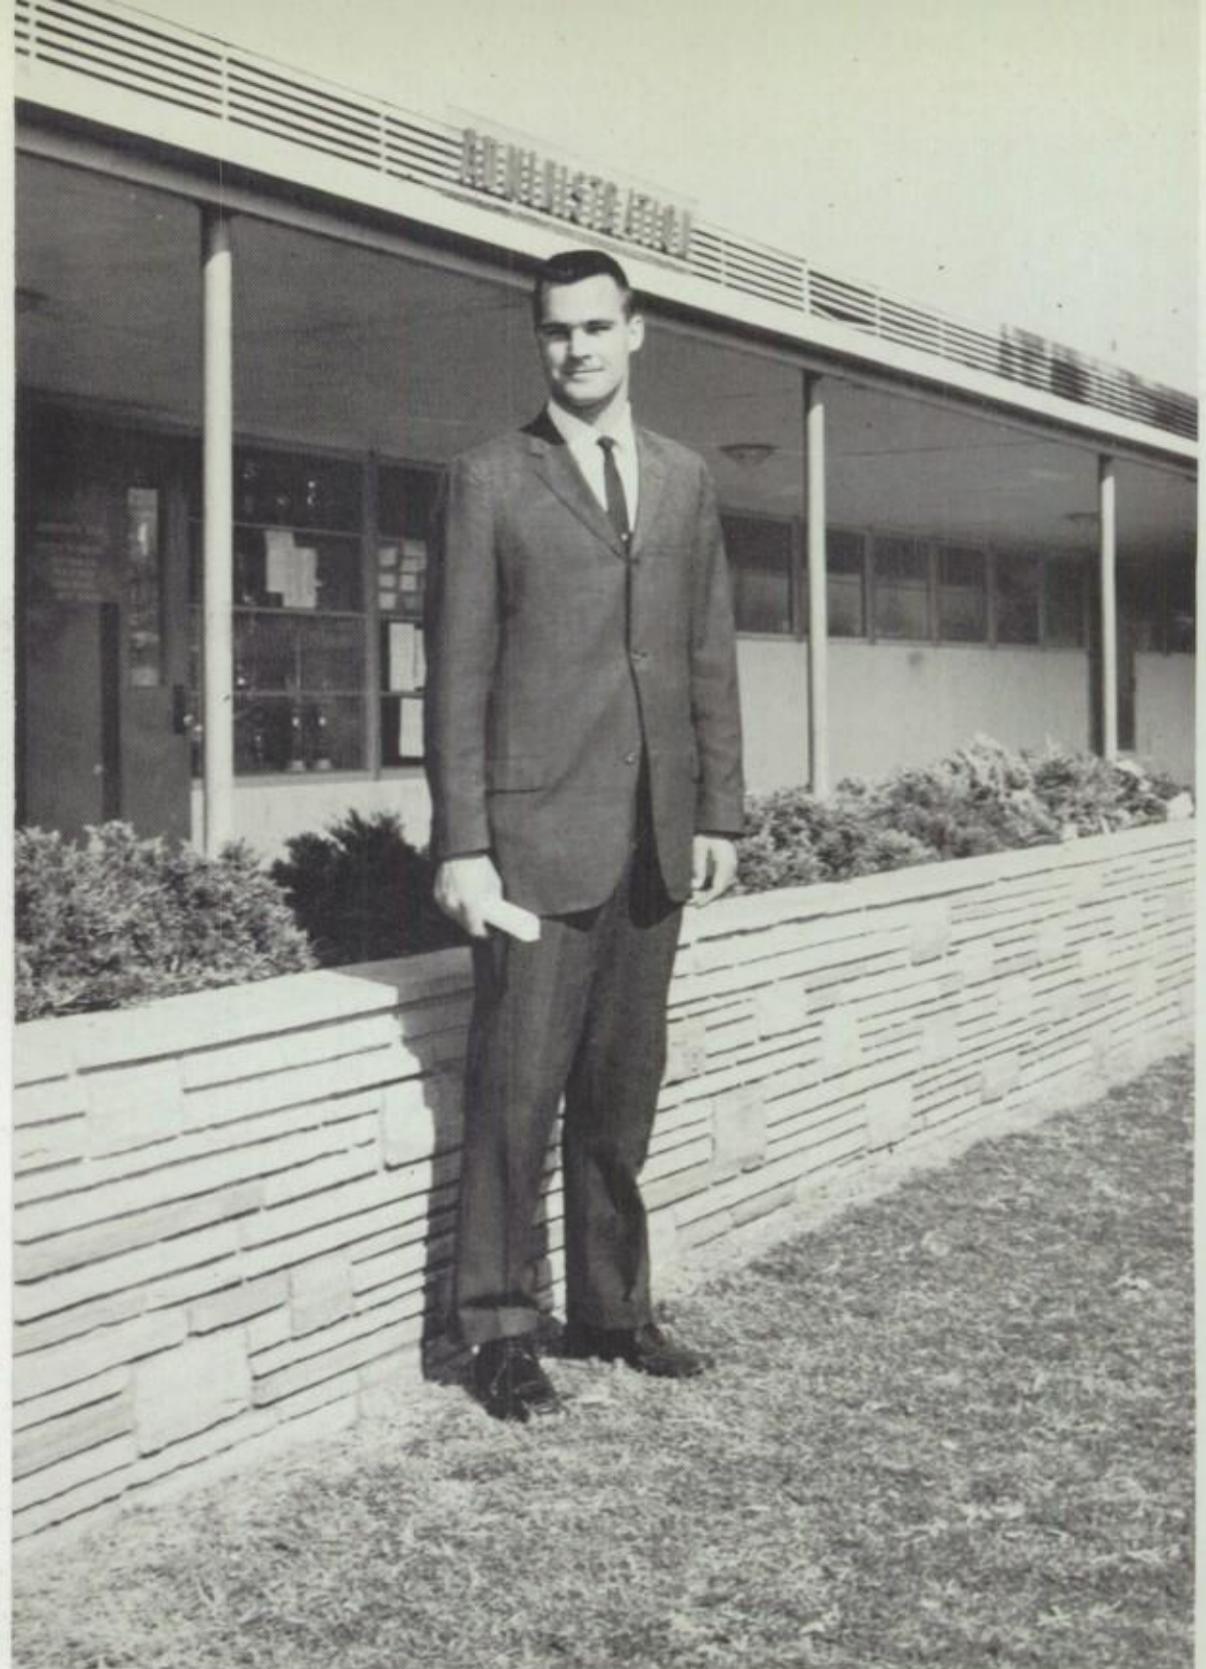

Thirty-four years ago, in 1928, two sisters, Elizabeth and Emma Lenhardt, entered a contest at Garden Grove High School. The contest was begun in order to discover a school song. The two sisters submitted words and music for a song which later became our alma mater. The prize in the contest was five dollars. The two sisters captured the spirit of Garden Grove, a spirit which has become a tradition. The two sisters, now Mrs. Emma Reed and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, still reside in Garden Grove. We respectfully dedicate the 1962 Argonaut annual to these former Argos. We trust the spirit of honor and devotion will be reflected in this Argonaut.

Board of Trustees

The Garden Grove High School District Board of Trustees: William B. Whitlow, Joe F. Nathaniel Kurnick, and William H. Wiesner.

Governing Garden Grove High School is the Board of Trustees. The men who make up this board often decide the "yes's" and "no's." These are the people who granted funds to the campus of the Argonauts.

Mr. James Cherry served again as superintendent for Garden Grove High School. He has been teacher, principal, and superintendent in San Mateo County Schools. He took keen interest in the school and its instructors during the school year of 1961-1962.

Superintendent James C. Cherry

Mrs. Eileen LaBarthe, a U.S.C. graduate, is now serving as Garden Grove's charming and attractive Principal. Completing her duties as efficiently as possible and yet not rising above contact with the students is what she has stated as her major problem.

Princípal

Advisors to the Principal

MR. OSCAR GROVES

Dean of Boys

Mr. Oscar Groves joined Garden Grove in 1961 as Dean of Boys. His pleasant smile and efficient manner have contributed to a successful school year.

MRS. MARY McCLAIN

Vice Principal

Mrs. McClain left Garden Grove in 1959 and joined the staff of a rival school as Dean of Girls. Now she is again with the staff of Garden Grove, serving as Vice Principal.

MR. LARRY REED

Business Manager

Garden Grove readily broke in her new business manager. In his first year Mr. Reed faced the handling of school funds and administering books to new students. Another major part of his work was returning the numerous lost books.

Attendance Office

MR. OSCAR GROVES

Administrator of Attendance

Absence may make the heart grow fonder, but it means a great deal of work to the cheerful attendance office staff. Administrator Groves and his staff labored through virus epidemics and floods of spring to maintain order and efficiency. Of special note, the dulcet tones of Mrs. Mandeville filled each room with echoes of music and club meetings.

Mrs. Avis Jahn, Mrs. Rose Mandaville, Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Ruth Gable, Mrs. Marie Marshall.

Keeping the school functioning smoothly and efficiently is the task of the office staff. Answering telephones, keeping student records, and running mimeographed materials are a few of their duties.

Guidance Office

MR. CHARLES SHORTRIDGE
Registrar

With both a large enrollment and shift of students, the registrar, Mr. Charles Shortridge, was kept quite busy. Although there was at first a busy time, our high school was kept running smoothly through the persistent work of Mr. Shortridge.

Mrs. Momi Callis, Mrs. Sally Cox.

Serving as a counselor, Mrs. Carroll was kept busy helping students change classes, schedules, and other business about the campus. With Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, the "Busy Signal" was often given to those trying to see her.

MRS. VIRGINIA CARROLL
Counselor

Jason Awards

Most shy and unassuming, Mr. Law receives trophy.

Miss Anderson in full regalia of '20's' receives sweet recognition.

Mr. Hoganson, Mr. Davis, Mr. Axton, Mr. Delabar, and Mr. Brown sing along with Gerbosi.

Mathematics - Homemaking

MRS. MARY KING

2 plus 2 is 4, $2x + 2x = 4x$, and all the way up to Trigonometry is taught in the math classes throughout the campus. Math, Algebra I, II, Geometry, and Trig are offered. Two years are required to the number of geniuses in school.

Mrs. Dayle Provost, Mrs. Lorena Maddox.

MRS. DAYLE PROVOST

Sniff, sniff. Argonauts' noses sniffed the air to find the source of delicious aroma. Learning how to cook, sew, and manage a home, are the future homemakers of America.

Art - English

Mr. Ralph Valez, Mr. Nels Nelson

MR. NELS NELSON

Row 1: Miss Valerie West, Mrs. Mary Jo Henricksen, Mrs. Eva Covington, Mrs. Mary Posner, Miss Joan Query, Miss Sandra Beebe, Mr. Michael Gerbosi. Row 2: Harry Bauer, Mr. Dean Grimes, Janine Schiller, Rick Rowland.

MRS. KAY SLOAN

'Ain't' ain't right. Especially in English classes. Teaching students to speak and write correctly are the English instructors. English classes I, II, III, and IV are split into two semesters of learning. The first semester is dedicated to English composition, the second is literature. Book reports, themes, essays, spelling, vocabulary, and grammar are covered in the short school year by the industrious teachers.

Science - Músic

MR. ROY STODDARD

Biology, Physiology, Radio Electronics, Chemistry, and Physics are the higher forms of Science taught to the future scientists of Garden Grove High School. Physical Science is mandatory for all students. Listening to lectures, watching demonstrations, creating projects, and doing laboratory exercises are part of the curriculum.

Mr. Clois Powell, Mr. Ernest Barber, Mr. Dick Francis, Mr. Roy Stoddard, Mr. Jim Axton, Mr. Al Cunningham.

Mr. William Hoganson, Mr. Russell Davis.

MR. WILLIAM HOGANSON

Language - History

Mr. George Gill, Mrs. Martha Habibe, Miss Anna Finley, Miss Charlotte Field, Mr. William Smith.

MR. EDWARD BROWN

Buenos Tardes, Guten Nachmittag, and Bon Jour are the greetings given to the friends of language students.

Mr. Jack Sorter, Mr. Homer Delaber, Mr. Doron Warren, Mr. Jack Thomas, Mr. Forbes Dickenson, Mr. Albert Ward, Mr. William Phillips, Mr. Richard Paulsell, Mr. Harry Bauer, Mr. John Kay, Mr. Keith Gaynes.

MISS DIANE GRAY

Around the world in 179 days is not the course of the trip but the path of study for Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. Learning about their ancestors, state history, and government procedures is the main route of travel.

Business - Library

MRS. MARGARET FINAN

Future secretaries and "big wheels" are being fashioned in the several business classes about campus. Instructors teach typing, shorthand, business law, and business math. In these numerous classes honesty, integrity, are put into the heads of future figures of the business world.

Miss Ruth Harner, Mr. Ralph Schields, Mr. Albert Ward, Mr. Robert Peters, Mr. Robert Buelow, Mr. Hal Vail.

Mrs. Edith Soest, Miss Muriel Anderson

MISS MURIEL ANDERSON

Books, books, books. New and old literally flowed from the shelf to students' hands and back again to the library. Though sometimes returned late, all of the librarians believe "Better late than never," applies to readers.

Industrial Arts-Boys' P.E.

Mr. Melvin Sothan, Mr. Donald Bower, Mr. Kenneth Wade, Mr. James Law.

MR. DONALD BOWER

Studying the art of constructing a fallout shelter; are the young "gents" around campus. Sawing, hammering and simply learning how to putter around are the young men under the many shop instructors.

Mr. Robert Suess, Mr. Donald Webster, Mr. Joseph Carlson, Mr. Alan Musil.

MR. ROBERT SUESS

1,2,3,4. . .Bend, stretch, pull! These refrains are also heard by the boys of Garden Grove. Learning to swim, play baseball, and other sports are some of the activities offered to the boys of our school. Those boys who are particularly interested in football and other sports may develop their special skills.

Bus Drivers

MR. CHARLES MUNZ

Cafeteria

Playing the part of mothers drawn into a car pool are the bus drivers. Their stops and troubles are much more numerous as they "Cart" students to and from school.

MRS. BLANCHE BERRY

The "hash house" on campus provided students with wholesome lunch time meals. Students and the ladies of the cafeteria make sure good lunches are given to the students.

Nurse

Girls P.E.

MRS. MABEL BENEFIEL

Caring for the sick was taught to students interested in nurse training. Mrs. Mabel Benefiel and Mrs. Edito Soest helped the sick and also assisted student nurses in developing skills in administering to patients.

Miss Betty Schmidt, Miss Pauline Roberge, Miss Vicki Toutz, Miss Barbara Decker, Miss Marge Barkley.

MISS MARJORIE BARKLEY

1,2,3,4 . . . Bend, stretch, pull! These refrains meet the ears of all girls at Garden Grove High School every day. Learning to swim, play volleyball, golf, baseball, and tennis are some of the activities offered girls during the year.

Custodians

Keeping busy during the after school are the members of the continuing clean-up committee, the custodians. Sweeping and mopping, watering and cutting, etc., are just a few things they do to keep things NEAT!

President John Sullivan Served School

Student Body President John Sullivan exerted a great deal of influence throughout school activities. As head of the student government, his duties included moderating at school assemblies, conducting meetings of the student council and cabinet, representing the student body at all inter-school functions, and informing the students, through special reports, of matters of general importance. John did an excellent job of running the school government with excellent leadership. He exerted a tremendous amount of influence on all school and community activities.

John Sullivan finds the environment lovely.

VICE-PRESIDENT

Dave Blair Second in Command

Dave Blair diligently fulfilled the office of vice-president. He served the school by preparing all student assemblies and presiding over the Student Council and Cabinet meetings and school assemblies when the president was absent. As vice-president, Dave supervised all student elections and voting for new amendments that came up during the year. Because he headed most of the committees that worked on student activities, Dave had an active hand in school affairs. Striving for better student leadership by careful planning, Dave helped give the office of vice-president more meaning and importance in school government.

SECRETARY

Glenellen Cooper Kept Argo Records

Serving as secretary of the Student Body, Glenellen Cooper attended all Cabinet and Student Council meetings for the purpose of recording the activities and decisions in the form of minutes, which she duplicated and distributed to each adviser for classroom reading. Capably assisted by Linda Cummins, she has been able to keep an accurate account of the social and business correspondence. Working within the cabinet, Glenellen has participated in many activities and projects designed to better the school and add more effective leadership. She has assisted whenever she could be of service to the school.

Varsity club is a select and honorary organization, open only to varsity lettermen. Its members are entitled to wear red and white jackets as a symbol of their office. Varsity lettermen can receive their letters in any of the following sports: football, water polo, cross country, basketball, swimming, track, baseball, tennis, golf, or wrestling. The members provided great service to the school by attending all athletic events to aid in crowd control and by assisting the coaching staff. This year the Varsity Club did a fine job of promoting student interest in the athletic program, raising funds to pay for awards, improving the standards of sportsmanship and citizenship and cooperated with the student government in improving the school.

Jordaners

With teaching in sight as a goal, the Jordaners visited an elementary school and observed the classrooms in action. This was the main activity for the Future Teachers Club this past year.

Other activities include speeches from nearby colleges and the Foreign Exchange Students delighted the club with their experiences in foreign schools and their concept of education in America.

Future Teachers Bev Goodale and Janice Shugart learn the way teachers make the grade.

QUEEN RANDI MAGILL

Sparks flew during the activities that preceded the gloom and happiness of the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. From Seniors down to Freshmen, each class "sweats" blood in the frenzy of parties, raffles, and car washes. The sophomore class is victorious in the end and charming Randi Magill is Queen. The Senior Class, which takes second place, is represented by beautiful Georgie Matous. Juniors are pleased to know darling Sharon Lassen wins third place honors. The Freshmen win fourth and are proud of the beauty who represents them, Jamie Oughton. The loss of a game, but the gain in spirit, sounds out with the singing of the Alma Mater.

Co-Ed Candidates Caper

Southurne Nocturne was the theme of the annual Girls' League Co-ed Dance held at Fullerton Junior College student lounge. The dance reached its climax with the crowning of John Sullivan, who earlier had been chosen by a vote taken of all female Argonauts. John and his sponsor, Alyce Price, were accompanied by the other candidates in a waltz which followed the crowning of the King. After dinner, and a night of dancing, couples left floating on clouds of memories.

Danny Kaplanek ignores the attentions of Donna McGriff for "Hey Baby Be My Girl."

Jim Morgan visits the dentist, Judy Just.

John Sullivan takes up the Hula while showing girls why he and Alyce Price need a vacation.

Argonaut of the Year

Garden Grove compiled its best won-lost record in the school's history in Varsity, B, and C Divisions this year, winning 25 games while losing only 11. Highlight of the year was the Argo's victory in the Sunset League Water Polo Tournament as we defeated Fullerton 6-5 for the Championship trophy.

Varsity was not expected to fair well in water polo this year, because of the loss of so many players through graduation. However, the rapid development of Mike Forrest, a forward, and the overall team spirit sparked by the leadership of Bill Watkins, Dennis West, and Tim Casey, gave our school a team that fought back in many games for decisive victories after trailing at half time.

Class Officers

Holding the office of President of the senior class was Bill Watkins. Along with his cabinet, Bill planned various activities to arouse school spirit among the seniors. It was with this spirit that the senior cabinet worked so diligently; planning and working on activities for the year. Every job was done well and with the never-ending enthusiasm of the senior president and his senior officers.

California Junior Miss Glenallen Cooper

Time flies like an arrow! I thought I landed in California just a few days ago. Everything around me was strange and new. My heart beat high in expectation of new experiences laying ahead of me. New experiences came without letting me pause for a moment to realize the passing of time.

Boy, didn't I do a lot of things within only nine months! I went to dances, and I learned to stomp and twist. I even paid a whole dollar to stomp to Dick Dale and the Deltones' music.

But more than anything else, I am most thankful to Garden Grove students and the Templeton family for letting me have such a wonderful year.

"Getting to know you. Getting to like you.
Getting to like all of you.

Getting to feel free and easy and know what to say.

Oh, isn't it a pity that I have to leave soon
when I want to know more about you?"

Oh well, at the same time I'm anxious to go home, too.

Thank you Argonauts for having me. I'll never forget you.

Argentina comes to Garden Grove.

Dear Friends of Garden Grove High:

It is for me an honor and a pleasure to appear in this wonderful annual. I will take advantage of this opportunity to tell you what I heartily feel.

When I came to Garden Grove, I did not meet you until classes started. Later on we became acquainted and now you are part of myself. I lived with you at school, in parties, at the games, everywhere. I enjoyed visiting numerous places in California, but above all, I got to know you well.

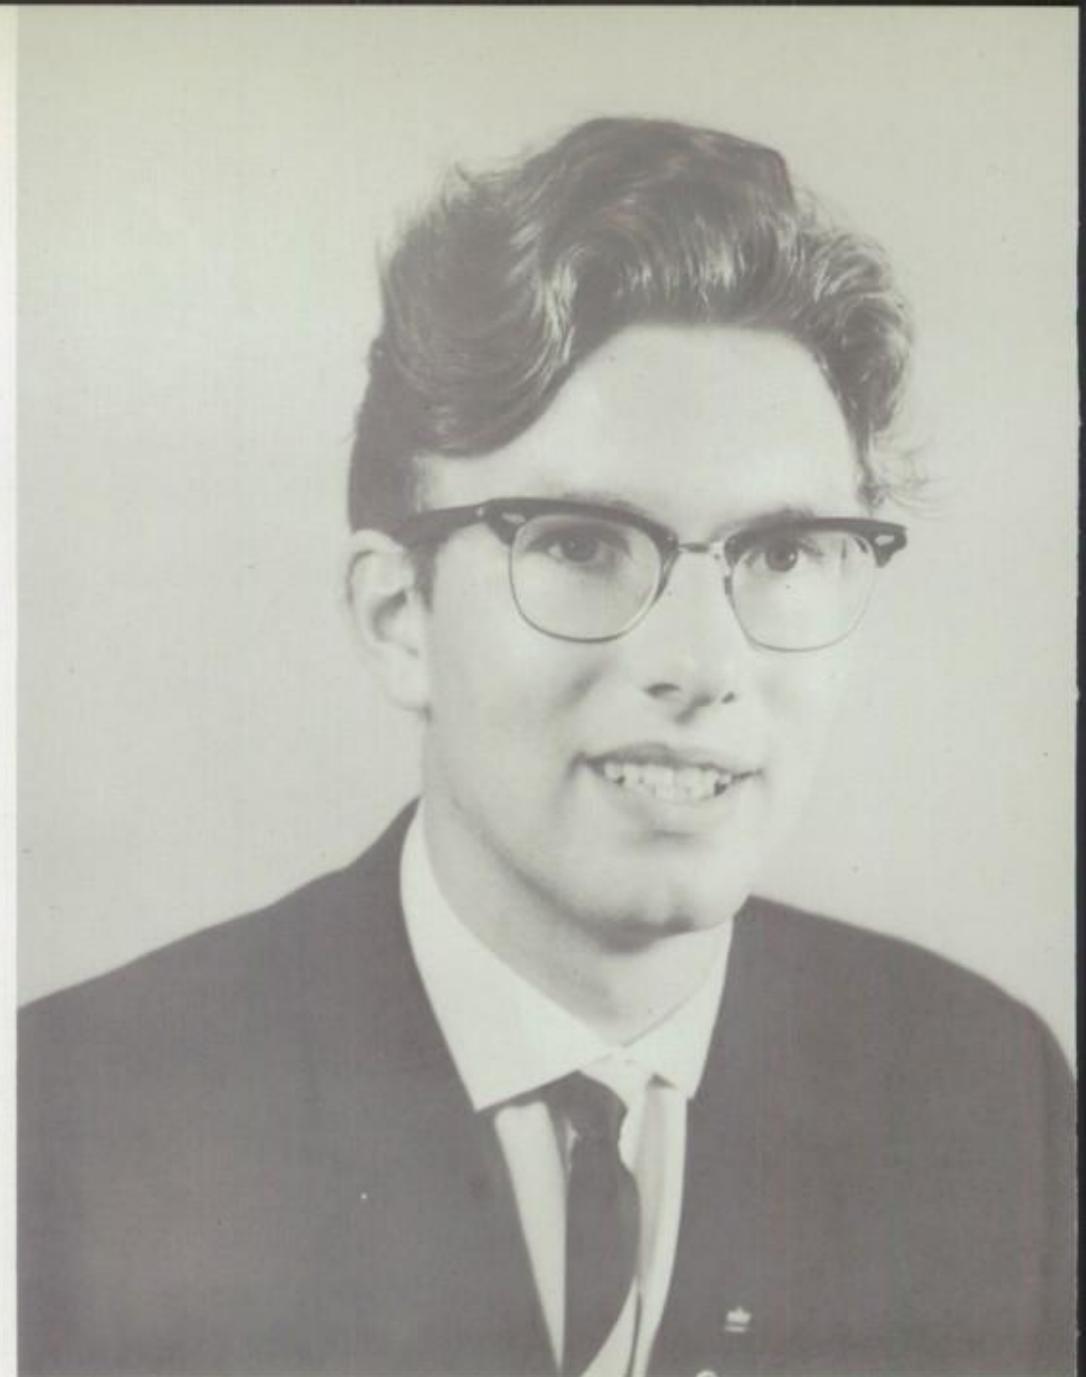

Thank you, students and faculty. I will always remember you and Garden Grove High School with affection.

CARLOS JAREN

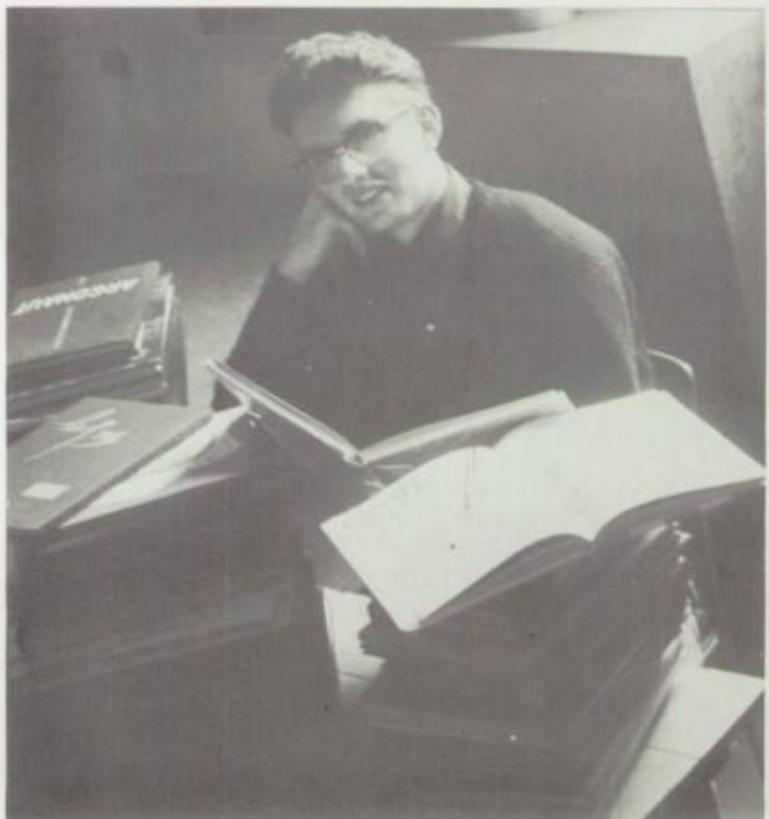

The first wonderful experience after my arrival was the life with my American family. In Germany the war left me with only a mother and a grandmother with whom I live; so I really enjoyed the life in a big family with my foster parents, my brother Clinton (senior) and my sister Margaret (freshman), and little brother Everett (kindergarten).

The second great event was entering Garden Grove High School. It is so different from European schools that it cannot be compared. However, the thing I am most impressed with is the variety of clubs, the Student Body Government, and the firm democratic way matters are handled. In my German school, I am a member of the Student Co-Administration. I can tell you we envy the American students because of their "government" powers, and the actual respect teachers as well as students themselves show toward this.

Students

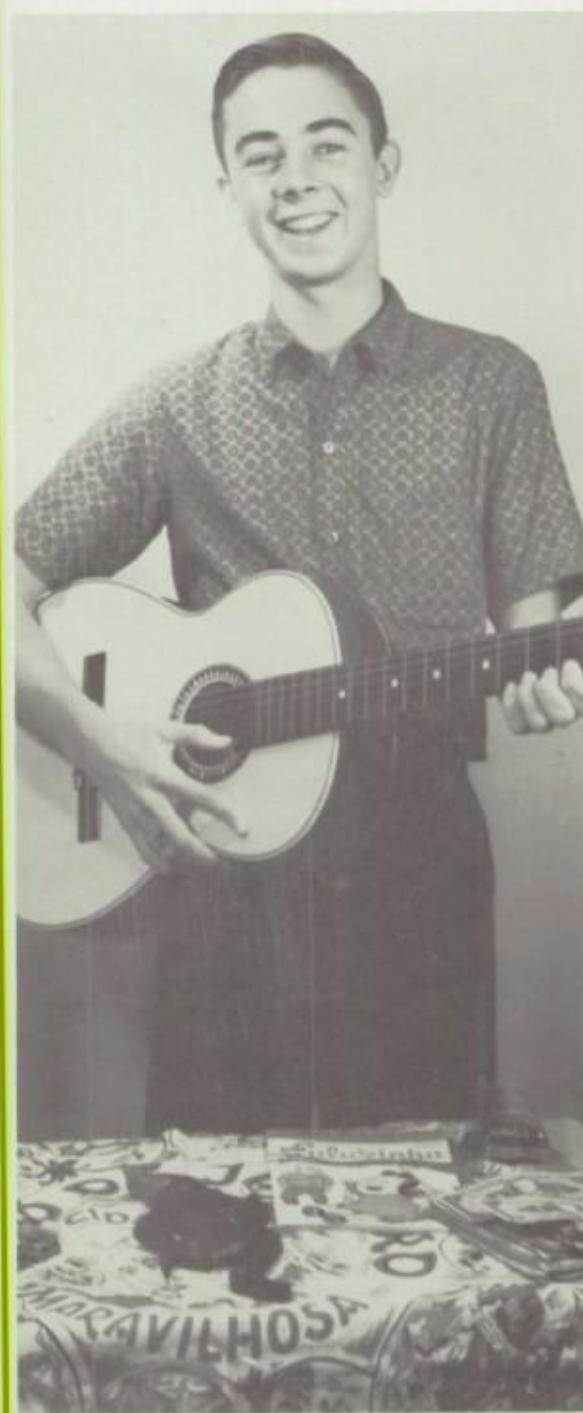

A bird in the hand.

Being one out of thirty-nine students from the United States to be sent to Brazil, I spent nine weeks in the most beautiful city in the world - Rio de Janeiro. My family consisted of my parents and my three brothers, ages 17, 18 and 22. I learned Portuguese very quickly because none of my family spoke English.

During those nine weeks I attended school (and earned a diploma), traveled to the new capitol of Brazil and Caracas, and recorded my experiences. With my remaining time, I went to parties and spent many hours at beautiful beaches.

The Brazilian people are very friendly, and they always made me feel at home. I feel this experience gave me a first hand view of the problems we face in Latin America and thus increased my understanding of people.

John recalls Brazil.

Most Worthy

JOHN WURSTER

JOHN SULLIVAN

HARRY ARNOLD

Truly a symbol of Garden Grove High School, John Sullivan was a familiar figure at all student activities, athletic events, assemblies, public and community events. The office of student body president requires long hours of planning, sacrifice of time, and devoted interest to the welfare of the school. And as student body president and student of Garden Grove High School, John Sullivan most able represents the virtues and traditions of Most Worthy Argonaut.

Competing with John Sullivan were Harry Arnold and John Wurster. Both students exemplify the qualities of academic excellence and scholastic interest which are the hallmarks of outstanding Argonauts. As runners up to John Sullivan, Harry Arnold and John Wurster represent the all-around excellence of Most Worthy Argonauts.

Argonaut

GLENELLEN COOPER

MARCY OWEN

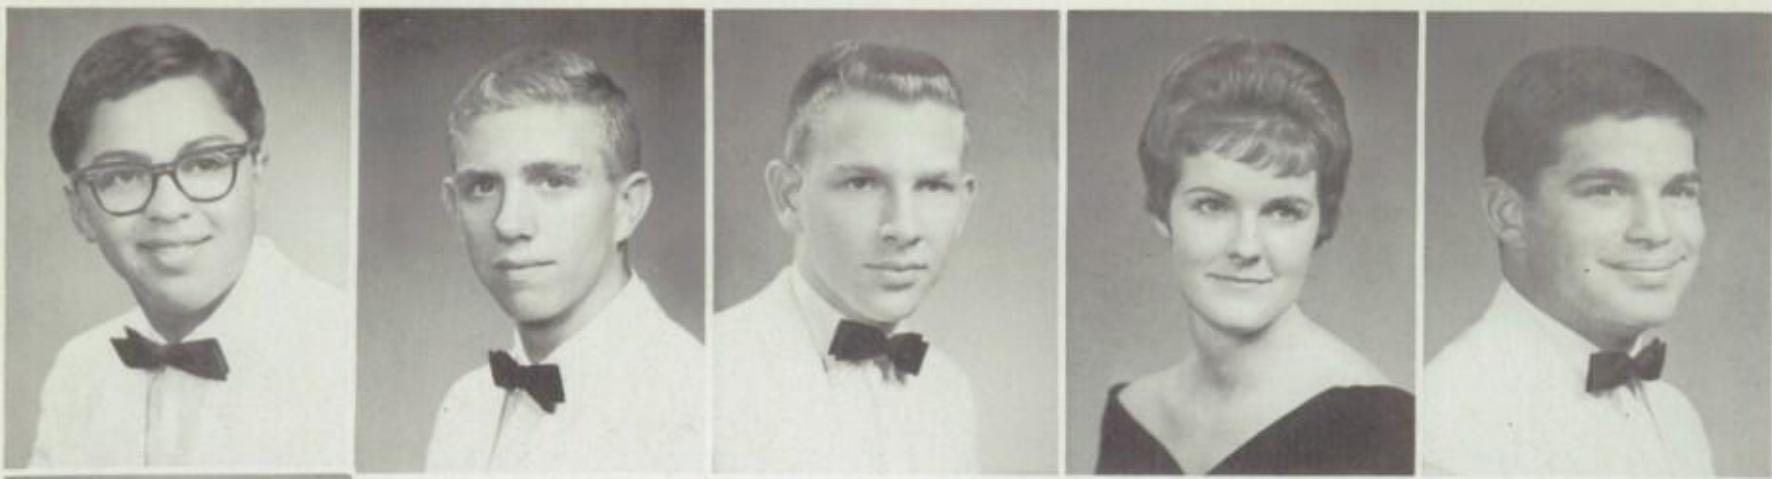

SANDY LAFONTAINE

Combining beauty, intelligence, and loyalty to Garden Grove High School, Glenellen Cooper represents the traditional unity of scholar and student. Her unwavering sense of responsibility to the student body and to her studies, and her genuine excellence of character, all mark her as Most Worthy Argonaut for 1962. Perhaps first among all of her accomplishments is her selection as Miss California Junior Miss for 1962.

Sandy LaFontaine and Marsha Owen challenged Glenallen Cooper for the title of Most Worthy Argonaut. Their undivided efforts to serve Garden Grove High School in any capacity illustrate the qualities of pride in Garden Grove High School, and desire to further the aims of the school as an institution.
